SCOTTSDALE PUBLIC ART WALKING TOUR

1. "THE DOORS" BY DONALD LIPSKI

What would it be like to stand inside a kaleidoscope? Find out when you venture inside this monumental work created from three 28-foot-tall mirrored panels.

📍 Scottsdale Waterfront, southeast corner of Scottsdale and Camelback Roads

6. "JACK KNIFE" BY ED MELL

This giant bronze of a cowboy on a bucking bronco gives a nod to Scottsdale's Western heritage and the city's official seal. You can safely cross into the intersection to take pictures by the sculpture.

📍 Intersection of Main Street & Marshall Way

2. "SOLERI BRIDGE & PLAZA" BY PAOLO SOLERI

Designed by the late Italian architect Paolo Soleri, the bridge demonstrates the importance of solar movement and features two steel-clad, 64-foot-high pylons that create a shaft of light.

📍 Scottsdale Waterfront, west side of Scottsdale Road south of Camelback Road

7. "THE YEARLINGS" BY GEORGE-ANN TOGNONI*

This monument to wild horses has become an icon of free spirit in the American West and depicts three bronze yearlings galloping in full stride.

📍 Scottsdale Civic Center, corner of Main Street and Brown Avenue

3. "PASSING THE LEGACY" BY HERB MIGNERY

This life-size bronze depicts a vintage Pony Express rider and a contemporary Hashknife Pony Express rider handing off the mail to show the "Old West" meeting the "New West" in Old Town Scottsdale.

📍 Scottsdale Waterfront Pedestrian & Trolley Bridge, south of Marshall Way & Via Soleri

8. "WINFIELD SCOTT MEMORIAL" BY GEORGE-ANN TOGNONI*

Based upon a historic photo, this sculpture depicts Scottsdale founder Winfield Scott alongside his wife Helen seated on "Old Maud," his retired Army mule.

📍 Scottsdale Civic Center Mall

4. "BRONZE HORSE FOUNTAIN" BY BOB PARKS

Created by Bob Parks, who owned an art gallery in town for 30 years, this piece showcases the beauty of five Arabian horses as they play in the fountain's water.

📍 Intersection of 5th Avenue & Marshall Way

9. "KNIGHT RISE" BY JAMES TURRELL

This "skyspace" installation frames the sky as pure color and shows "the changing light of the sky, altering what we see with our own eyes." The illusion created by this structure is most dramatic at sunrise and sunset.

📍 Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art

5. "ONE-EYED JACK" BY JOHN RANDALL NELSON

One of the most fabled desert animals, the Jackalope is nearly impossible to trap! "One-Eyed Jack" is a 26-foot-tall, 20,000-pound steel homage this elusive desert legend. With his long ears reaching for the sky, Jack playfully invites visitors to explore Old Town.

📍 Northwest corner of Indian School Rd. & Marshall Way

10. "LOVE" BY ROBERT INDIANA*

Conceived when the United States was consumed by the Vietnam War, Indiana's "Love" sculptures became a symbol for peace. The sculpture is a favorite spot for taking pictures with the one you love.

📍 Scottsdale Civic Center Mall, outside the Scottsdale Civic Center Library

*Temporarily off exhibit due to Civic Center Park refurbishments. Will return in early 2023.
